President's Notes

Happy New Year woodcarvers! As we start a new year and a new administration, I would like to thank Loren and all of the outgoing officers for their service to our club! We appreciate your dedication. I am honored that you chose me to be your club president. I love this club and will work hard for all. I have some great people in my cabinet and know I can depend on them for help and advice. We will also be starting a new chapter as we move to a new location for our monthly meetings. The Community Christian church has welcomed us with open arms, and I am excited for the future of our new home. I have several new ideas I will be sharing with you as we move into the new year and look forward to your feedback. Until then, keep the chips flying!

Doug

Jocularity

- I've been married for several years. I've got kids. Believe me, I know exactly how stupid I am.
- How do you milk sheep? Bring out a new iPhone and charge $1,000 for it.
- A girl said she recognized me from her vegetarian club, but I'd never met herbivore.
- I've always had an irrational fear of speed bumps, but I'm slowly getting over it.
- What word becomes shorter when you add two letters to it? Short. (For those of you needing a Dad joke)
- I've finally told my suitcases there will be no holiday this year. Now I'm dealing with the emotional baggage.
- If you're not supposed to eat at night, why is there a light bulb in the refrigerator?
- Don't let your worries get the best of you; remember, Moses started out as a basket case.
- "The important thing to remember is that I'm probably going to forget." – Unknown
